CCU ANNOUNCES PROMISE TO PURCHASE LAND

Santiago, Chile, September 9, 2013, Compañía Cervecerías Unidas S.A. (NYSE: CCU), reported that on September 6, 2013, signed a promise to purchase 240 hectares of land, consisting of 2 plots of approximately 120 hectares each, within the Santiago metropolitan area, 45 kilometers far.

CCU may exercise the option provided in the promise, within a period of two years, which is subject, among others, to the condition to get the approval from the authorities to change the use of agricultural land, according to the Santiago Metropolitan Master Plan.

Moreover, the promise to purchase granted the option to purchase only one or both plots (120 hectares each approximately), at the option of CCU.

This purchase seeks to support future growth of the various business units of CCU, the first step being the construction of a new plant for non-alcoholic products.
